mail franking privileges to $500 in any one year. He sought to have an amendment to the same end adopted yesterday in connection with the attempt to prohibit free telegraph privileges for senators, but was defeated, and announced he would introduce it as a bill today.

limiting the annual telegraph expenses of each senator, but was ruled out of order. For the committee to substitute to provide that no senator could be paid for any business not official business at public expense. The senate rejected the amendment only because of the lack of a quorum. The senate adjourned just short of enough votes to carry it.

AGREEMENT IS REACHED ON RURAL CREDITS BILL

—Washington, April 1.—Senator Hollis, of New Hampshire, and Representative Bulkley, of Iowa, chairman of the two subcommittees in charge of the Rural Credits bill, today agreed with Senator Wilson that republicans and democrats alike of the committee would support the bill, and agreed on the fundamentals and that a bill would be ready shortly, embodying their views. The president impressed his callers with what seemed to him to be a necessity for prompt action and told them that he would support it. Bulkley believed rural credits would be the appropriate bill to introduce in the appropriation bill in the house.

—The controversy Mr. Hollis said the toll controversy and appropriation bills would occupy many weeks, but he believed the Rural Credits bill was ahead of the trust question.

Pauline Chase Under Knife.

London, April 1.—Miss Pauline Chase, the actress, today underwent an operation for appendicitis. The actress's surgeon said she had passed through the operation satisfactorily.

Harvard Football.
Cambridge, Mass., April 1.—Thirty five men reported for the first Harvard football practice of the year today. They were given light work on one of the baseball fields.

of the Virginia league, after six hours of discussion, late today voted to adopt a new schedule for the coming season. Every team in the league was represented and there were four schedules submitted. The one submitted by J. R. McCrary, of Norfolk, was adopted. This schedule does away with conflicting dates between Norfolk and Portsmouth.
